

More Growth for Mosquito Mary's as Network Adds New Franchise Team

Mosquito and tick control franchise expands in new Central Carolinas territory.

CAMDEN, SOUTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, March 22, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Representing Mosquitos Mary's on both sides of the Carolinas border, a new Mosquito Mary's team is hard at work just in time for spring.

Franchisees Shelley Fentress and Tracey Carpenter signed the Mosquito Mary's franchise deal late February. The team caught the Mosquito Mary's franchise bug after seeing the brand up close and benefiting personally from the mosquito and tick control services.

Fentress, long time Camden resident, is an avid camper who can often be found in one of the central Carolina state parks with her husband, daughter, and two labs. "Nothing beats hiking, grilling, and spending time outdoors," said Fentress. "But when people say that a fire pit keeps mosquitoes away, they are very, very wrong!" Also a lover of the outdoors, Tracey Carpenter spends much of her time outside with her family, especially in the summer months. "I know the pain and frustration of having a good time end too soon due to too many mosquito bites. I wanted to bring a service that I personally love to the area, and share it with my community," stated Carpenter.

The duo is customer service focused, having been in the shoes of their clients before. "We are always available for our clients," asserted Fentress. "You can text Tracey or I at 8pm that you have mosquitos and we will get you scheduled right then." The team emphasizes that customer dedication is at the top of their priority list and that their customer service is what sets them apart in the pest control space. "We are 100% committed and want our clients to know that we are here not just to run a business, but to build relationships with the people in our community,"
