President and Director of Litigation Research*

with Lawdragon Inc. to publish the inaugural edition of the Lawdragon 500 Leading Environmental & Energy Lawyers Guide, which recognizes the most effective U.S. lawyers practicing in environmental, energy, and natural resources law. The annual guide, published for the first time this year, includes the foremost 500 lawyers in the country who are tackling some of the most pressing global issues of our time—including environmental justice, climate change, clean energy, and compliance.

“These are the leading U.S. lawyers shaping the future of the environment and energy,” said Katrina Dewey, Lawdragon Founder and CEO. “We’ve researched the guide for the past two years, studying the leaders across the spectrum—representing spotted owls as well as oil producers, forests alongside miners.” The 2021 guide can be viewed here.

“As a trusted partner to environmental, energy, and natural resources attorneys—including many current and former clients listed in the Lawdragon guide—we understand the competitive advantage that historical insight and perspective can bring to these legal disputes,” said Jason H. Gart, PhD, HAI Vice President and Director of Litigation Services. “Congratulations to all of the lawyers who appear on this year’s edition—it is an honor to sponsor the inaugural guide.”
