Global Advisory Council

Commenting on his new position, Heiko Wongel said, "The use of patent information has developed significantly over the last years. What used to be just a technical resource for straightforward novelty searching has become the basis for advanced analysis. This allows drawing conclusions on technical trends, market developments, investment opportunities and can generate benefits far beyond the IP area itself. A multidisciplinary approach and a capable team like Sagacious are a must for maximizing these benefits."

Faiz Wahid, Regional Head – Europe, Sagacious IP, stated "Sagacious IP has always been at the forefront of the IP industry by leveraging its analytical talent to draw actionable insights from patent information. Mr. Wongel's deep expertise in the IP industry will enable us to look beyond the obvious transformations in the IP industry and be prepared for the future of IP as it unfolds globally."

The establishment of Sagacious 'Future of IP' Global Advisory Council is aligned with the company's aim of not only leading the change but also paving the way for the next evolution in the IP industry. Members of this new advisory council are experts in their fields and will play a key role in determining the company's future direction.
