So, What do we need?

□ We're looking to raise $2M - With three main goals in mind.

□ 1) To expand our reach with five new global publishing hubs. This will give us the capacity to publish ten times the amount of books we currently do each month and increase front-end revenues as much as $450,000 a month.

□ 2) We have not spent a penny on advertising to date. We will now build Advertising and social media campaigns that put our books in more hands, in front of more eyes, in more languages than ever before.

□ 3) We will continue to enhance our production processes which allow us to respond to the fast-paced demands of the marketplace which we are creating.
