Walid Chaya is an acting expert. His program "The Active Actor™" has helped transform the careers of many aspiring actors.”

Michael O'Sullivan

Director Walid Chaya has launched a new program at Studio For Performing Arts LA: "The Active Actor™," an exclusive monthly mentorship package and weekly class taught by him and industry guests for performers ready to work in the Los Angeles industry.

Participation requires an application for approval to attend the semester-long program. This program is the only one of its kind that aims to "Elevate Your Craft & Career™," focusing on both the actor's performance as well as business skills.

Interested actors can learn more and apply at <https://walidchaya.com/theactiveactor>

The Active Actor™ is available virtually and at Walid's studio in Los Angeles with constant career support from Walid and special guest speakers from image consultants to talent and business professionals. In addition to a weekly scene study, participants have exclusive access to Walid's monthly business webinars with topics on marketing and money. The all-inclusive package also provides actors a showcase opportunity to meet and perform for a diverse panel of pro's including producers, directors, casting, agents and managers.

Previous participants wrapped the last semester with professional meetings and new found success. Walid's clients can be seen in commercials, major films, television shows and theater nationwide.

Additionally, Walid offers one-on-one career consultations, drop-in classes and more resources for actors at Studio For Performing Arts LA. He is also a keynote speaker and teaches master classes at various studios and international schools and universities.
