

Heart-repreneur® Creates New Chances For Frustrated Women Entrepreneurs

Women entrepreneurs who are struggling, frustrated, and challenged in growing their business, now have some free business advice.

NORTH WALES, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, April 12, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For many women entrepreneurs, their business can be frustrating and challenging. Especially today many of them find doing business to be a struggle. While they truly want to succeed in their business and to make the kind of money that they deserve and do the kind of work that they desire their business may not afford that for them. At the same time, they don't want to go get a job and get a paycheck ye they are not sure if their business is actually going to take off. These women feel a sense of loss and frustration and struggle and many of them are living in fear afraid they will be out of business. That fear can actually be blocking them from scaling their business.

"For most women in business, whether or not they achieve their business goal depends solely on understanding how to do business as a woman. The fact that few of them have woman business consultants helping them on their journey is very scary," explains Terri Levine, a business strategist who has helped thousands of women entrepreneurs create six and seven-figure overcome their male-oriented marketing - with a term she calls "Heart-repreneur®". The key to these women growing their businesses, she says, is to learn how to do business as a woman and not by following male role models and that is why her clients succeed. "It is possible to create a 6 and 7-figure business", says Levine, and "and to have massive time freedom too."
