Full-pledged Supply Chain Solutions During the Pandemic

ZongTeng Group has committed to providing cross-border e-commerce merchants with overseas warehousing, special line logistics services, product distribution, supply chain financial services and other integrated logistics solutions since the establishment in 2007. Specializing in e-commerce fulfillment, ZongTeng's warehouses achieve fast shipping, with multi-tier racks and automated sorting machines that sort 3,600 parcels every hour.

The growing demand for online purchases and the spikes in sales resulted from the pandemic and the subsequent lock-down have reinforced the significance of a dedicated distribution network that requires much of the warehouse space. In response to that, ZongTeng works out an all-encompassing solutions which include the warehouse expansion and other solutions.

"Our local warehouses play a crucial role in the fight against the pandemic," said Michael Cheng, ZongTeng Group's UK General Manager. Especially during the pandemic when anti-epidemic materials and household products are in short supply, ZongTeng's local warehouses take on a big mission to meet the huge market demands, with processing over 80,000 orders per day on average in the UK warehouse.

Currently, there are altogether 36 warehouse facilities in United States, United Kingdom, Germany, France, Czech Republic, Australia, Italy, and Spain. It is estimated that all the current warehouse area will have been ramped up again, and new warehouses will have been built in Japan and Canada by the end of 2021.

GoTen.com Committed to Dependable E-commerce Fulfillment for Online Retailers

As the online shopping trends soar during the pandemic, ZongTeng Group has never ceased its efforts in the expansion of local warehouses and the optimization of the logistics services.

Aiming to provide dropshipping services for online sellers on Amazon, eBay and other platforms, the global site of the GoTen Dropshipping Platform under ZongTeng Group was launched in 2020. Tapping into the successful management of local warehouses, GoTen seamlessly operates in fast delivery to bring an outsized benefit for online retailers in American and European markets.

With an additional 240,000 sq.m of warehouse space in the U.S. and an additional 70,000 sq.m of that in the U.K., GoTen's more parcels will be processed and the shipping efficiency will be further improved. Cooperating with reliable last-mile carriers to provide fast door-to-door delivery, GoTen's local warehouses also consistently optimize operational efficiency and enhance quality to improve customer satisfaction and boost online sales.
