

The NYPAA Experience: A Summer Camp with a Focus on Performing Arts in NYC

A 2-week acting, musical theatre, voice, and dance summer camp program with respected industry professionals in world-class facilities in the heart of New York

NEW YORK, NY, USA, March 25, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The COVID-19 pandemic forced many people to alter their routines for over a year. With social distancing and other safety measures, pursuing passion and artistry has become challenging. Today, The New York Performing Arts Academy (NYPAA) is here to change all that, enabling people to keep doing what they love without compromising their safety.

The Academy announced a new summer camp program that allows attendees to experience the best NYC has to offer and learn from some of the city's top industry experts, such as Karina Arroyave from the Netflix Award-winning series "Orange Is the New Black" and others in the performing arts world.

Get noticed by agents, managers, music producers, and casting directors looking for new talent.”
