SolarPark, a high efficiency solar panel manufacturer with a diversified portfolio of clients in the US and South Korea for residential and commercial markets, is the first issuer with Finhaven Private Markets. Founded in 2007 and boasting 181 employees, SolarPark is raising $13 million CDN through an 8% Convertible Bond with a three-year maturity to deliver a $41.1 million CDN secured contract with a $6.2 billion CDN solar power project in South Korea by August 2021.

The investor event is open to all accredited investors in Canada. Participation in the offering is exclusive to investors resident in BC through to Quebec who register with and become approved investors on the Finhaven Private Markets platform.

"We are excited to have the first green bond, security token offering in our marketplace. SolarPark is an ideal issuer for Finhaven Private Markets, given their commitment to ESG goals and technology innovation," says DH Kim, Finhaven CEO. "South Korea has aggressive climate objectives and the SolarPark project is a reminder that the momentum behind renewables reaches beyond the U.S. and Canada. This offering is an exclusive opportunity for accredited investors in Canada to gain exposure to this growing market."
