*Offers Free Two-Night Stay +
Transportation Sweepstakes*

FALL RIVER, MASSACHUSETTS, USA, March 26, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Entertainment company U.S. Ghost Adventures is under contract to buy the famous Lizzie Borden Bed and Breakfast and Museum located in Fall River, Massachusetts, expanding the company's portfolio, which includes over 30 ghost tour experiences across the United States. Operating as a museum and bed and breakfast, visitors can tour the home, and stay overnight in one of six rooms.

"We look forward to adding the Lizzie Borden house to our growing portfolio of haunted experiences and working with the staff to create new opportunities for guests," said Lance Zaal, who founded the company in 2018. "We have exciting plans for the house that we'll announce in April. A healthy transition for the staff and preserving the historical site are our top priorities." Mr. Zaal was approved for the licenses to operate the museum on March 24.

The company is celebrating the acquisition with a sweepstakes, offering transportation and a complimentary two-night stay at the Lizzie Borden House. To enter

The Lizzie Borden house is famously known as the home of Lizzie Borden, whose father Andrew and stepmother Abby were gruesomely murdered with a hatchet in 1892. Lizzie Borden was accused of the murders, and her trial became a national media sensation. She was acquitted in 1893. The murder is considered one of the oldest and most infamous unsolved murders in the United States. The home is also renowned for its hauntings and has been featured in movies, books, music, and numerous tv shows.
