SYDNEY, NEW SOUTH WALES,
AUSTRALIA, March 29, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Angelena Bonet, of Crystal Heart Records, has won a prestigious 'Global Music Awards' from The Global Music Awards Competition in Los Angeles. The award was given for Angelena's inspiring music video, "Change The World", which features in her multi-award winning documentary of the same title. "Change The World" features exceptional visuals and a powerful message for the world.

Recorded at Trackdown Studios in Fox Studios Australia, Angelena produced the music she created with her late fiancé, Erick Deeby and was engineered by Rose Mackenzie-Peterson. Trackdown Studios has produced many Hollywood soundtracks such as "I Am Woman", Disney's "Cinderella", George Miller's "Happy Feet" and "Mad Max Fury Road" starring Charlize Theron. The Australian singer-songwriter has won over 150 film and music awards for her documentaries and soundtrack thus far.

Their stated goals are to help independent musicians based on the merits of their music, not to make awards based on record sales or size of fan base. It is a measure respect for Global Music Awards that well-known Grammy and Emmy artists submit their work to Global Music Awards without solicitation. If you want to be known for the company you keep, Global Music Awards is the international music competition for you.
