Plumbing, the friendly, dependable service that customers have come to rely on, has announced that it is now providing free estimates in Upland, Pomona, Rancho Cucamonga in addition to Ontario in California.

Forget about the “no free lunch,” phrase – when it comes to getting the knowledge needed before undertaking plumbing repairs or upgrades, Empire Plumbing provides an estimate for free. They know that when clients are calling a plumber, it is either an emergency situation where the water is backed up or a pipe is broken, or a developer is investing in building or renovations. Either way, that client is putting up capital or repair costs and needs to know the figures before the work gets done.

Knowing the numbers is just half the issue. The quote must be provided quickly, be based in reality (no hidden fees) and be backed by a team with the experience and equipment to do the job. You can get all this and more with Empire Plumbing.

Empire Plumbing calls its customers “the heart of our business” and values each opportunity to serve them now and in the future. As this is a company that genuinely values service, all military and law enforcement personnel (past or present) receive a 10 percent discount with the proper identification.

Empire Plumbing's areas of expertise include:

- Whole house re-pipes (PEX or Copper)
