

RapidValue Achieves AWS Immersion Day Partner Status

PLEASANTON, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES,
March 31, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- RapidValue

Solutions, a leading digital product engineering firm, announced today that it is now a recognized Immersion Day Partner. Achieving the AWS Immersion Day Partner status resulted from RapidValue's demonstrated AWS expertise through a combination of customer success stories, technical certifications, and training program investments.

AWS Immersion Day can be customized to our customers' business goals and with the help of hands-on workshops, we can help companies unfamiliar with AWS services, to quickly evaluate its benefits."

Kiran Elengickal, Cloud Alliance Lead, RapidValue

The AWS Immersion Day workshops provide a full day of hands-on AWS Cloud training, delivered virtually or in-person to organizations wanting to move to the cloud or who would like to understand and learn more about AWS-specific services. These workshops are run by qualified APN Immersion Day practitioners.

When asked more about the AWS Immersion Day, Kiran Elengickal, Director of Business Development & Cloud Alliance Lead, RapidValue, remarked, "The AWS Immersion

Day workshops can be customized to our customers' business goals and with the help of hands-on workshops, we can help companies unfamiliar with AWS services, to quickly evaluate the benefits and the best ways to use them. Beyond hands-on training, our certified AWS Cloud experts can answer the questions you want to know and share with you our first-hand experience in the field."

Some of the key tracks of these workshops include General AWS Tools & Technologies, AWS Cloud Migration, Serverless Cloud Architecture, Microsoft Workloads on AWS, Continuous Delivery with AWS DevOps, etc. By the end of the Immersion Day workshop, customers will be able to evaluate multiple use cases and walk away with a better understanding of AWS architecture, and best practices for building scalable Native Cloud applications using AWS services.
