"We look forward to this partnership in educating clients as to Rule C General solicitations and disclosure obligations as well as insight into offering structures. Attorney Benemerito's firm has Wall Street credentials and deep alliances that will also benefit clients that do not fit our business model on a referral basis. We have also hired him as Counsel for our firm, and believe he is a great asset to our team," stated Mr. Pappie.

John Benemerito stated that " VX Global Inc. has a very unique and robust platform that provides clients a pathway to a large base of capital. Their streamlined process embraces compliance and disclosure requirements and regulations regarding Rule C and Reg A issuers, as well as streamlining vital presentation issues. We look forward to assisting clients during the onboarding process. This ensures that they have been briefed, and can use us as a resource for further situations that may arise."
