Chris White, Chairman & Founder, Ideal Homes International

Ideal Homes International has already sold 150 homes in Portugal and Spain so far in 2021, with Chairman & Founder Chris White negotiating discounts directly with resort owners and then passing these along to buyers. The transaction makes sense for both parties – the seller benefits from the rapid sale of multiple properties, while the buyer benefits from a reduced price.

Used to running 20 events per year prior to the pandemic, the Ideal Homes International team is certainly experienced at meeting buyers’ needs when it comes to viewings, tours and all the other aspects of overseas property discovery.

The 5th-9th April virtual event will connect buyers not just with Ideal Homes International's Chris White but with a variety of experts on a one-to-one basis. Information and advice will be available covering the buying process, property management and potential rental income, mortgage options, legalities, currency exchange and more.
