

K9 of Mine Launches Free Dog Training Course to Help Newly Adopted Shelter Dogs

The free online course is designed to help new rescue dog owners learn what to expect and how to help their pet transition from shelter life to their new home.

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, April 6, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- K9 of Mine today announced Starting Off On The Right Paw: Dog Adoption Quick Start Course, a new digital dog training course. The Dog Adoption Quick Start Course is a FREE online dog training course specifically designed for new or aspiring rescue dog owners. It takes owners through everything they need to know about adopting a rescue dog and what to expect in the first days and weeks together.

“While volunteering at animal shelters, I saw many newly adopted dogs returned due to events that could -- in my opinion -- be easily avoided.” says Meg Marrs, Founder of K9 of Mine. “So often, excited owners don't realize they are bringing a very stressed, overwhelmed animal into their home. They try to organize puppy parties with friends, expect the new dog to make quick friends with existing pets, want to immediately take their dog on hikes and to cafes, and don't give the new dog time to decompress from the hectic shelter environment they've just left. I believe if new owners had better resources on how to help their new rescue dog settle into their home, a lot of adoption returns could be prevented.”
