transformation. The website enables our clients, partners and colleagues to effectively access the resources that they require – on any device that they desire. Our clients can gain knowledge about our products and solutions and quickly provision their technology needs or request engagement from our experts.”

A key component of the website is the savvyPortal for ecommerce, where visitors can research and procure 4,000,000 IT products and 2,000 brands.

Features of the newly designed website include:

- More IT products and brands

- More technology solutions and capabilities
- A responsive design that works across all mobile and stationary devices
- A wider design format
- Simplified navigation and messaging
- Improved search functionality
- More vendor partner content
- A help and training platform for navigating savvyPortal
