Hello everyone! Andy Gesner is the owner and president of HIP Video Promo. As a veteran of promoting music videos for over 20 years, he fields numerous questions from potential and existing clients every day.

One of the most frequently asked questions is, what is the best YouTube promotion service?

Independent creatives all over the world are looking to increase the amounts of views for their YouTube videos. And at HIP Video Promo, they have seen many, many ways to do this. But when it comes to generating YouTube views, you do want to shy away from any companies that are just manufacturing or buying views.

They now have an answer to the question "what is the best YouTube promotion service?" - it is now HIP Video Promo. How do they do it? Just like in the Spotify world, they've become friends and formed great relationships with all the folks out there that curate YouTube playlists.

Yes, YouTube playlists. These curators are putting together playlists of music videos. And if your music video is part of that playlist, it will enjoy authentic, genuine views. Not to mention new comments, likes, and subscribers! These playlists are very curated - so your video will be featured on YouTube playlists that are genre-specific.

If you're looking for an excellent way to increase your music video's view count, you should very much consider YouTube playlists. All you need to do is give HIP Video Promo a call. The number is (732) 613-1779, or you can email info@hipvideopromo.com.
