

NBA Coach Brett Gunning and award-winning author Stacy Padula have teamed up to create the On The Right Path book series

Now a book series for children that helps them see the value of life-skills!

HOUSTON, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, April 12, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Finally, a children's book series that focuses on six life-skill pillars: loving others; being unselfish; staying healthy and strong; showing respect; showing forgiveness; and having fun. These are the pillars that can change the trajectory of a child's life and can create opportunity where none existed before.

NBA coach Brett Gunning and award-winning author, Stacy Padula, have teamed up to create the On the Right Path (OTRP) book series to guide young readers on the path to achieving their full potential. Both Gunning and Padula have a passion for helping young adults and believe in sharing wisdom and strategies that can be implemented by children to lead them towards success. Gunning and Padula are available for interviews and to share about their mission to empower our next generation of leaders.

OTRP is also a nonprofit organization created by Brett Gunning to guide youth basketball players on the right path to achieving their maximum potential through education, mentorship, and skill development.

Padula has written several young-adult book series that focus on helping teenagers deal with the challenges of peer pressure, drug and alcohol abuse, sex, and bullying found in so many communities today. She is also a notable publisher and works as a college counselor.

On The Right Path
