

Cubix University to Go Ahead with Its Premier Internship Program 2021 With All Covid-19 Precautions

Final year students are invited to apply for a 2-year Program to experience the Immense Opportunities the IT World Offers

WEST PALM BEACH,, FL, UNITED STATES, April 9, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Cubix opens a brilliant opportunity for final-year students who will graduate in 2022.

The internship program offered under

Cubix University is an exciting opportunity for students to step into the IT world where they will handle real projects. This program is part of the wider Cubix strategy for creating future leaders in digital technology.

Despite the challenging environment within which this internship program is moving ahead, and much to the relief of the future internees, the company has ensured that it will follow all SOPs to ensure the safety of the participants.

Regardless of the ongoing situation, the company doesn't want its internees to forget what it means to intern at Cubix; it realizes the importance of internees enjoying their experience being a part of the products it builds.

An Ongoing Effort to Build a Polished Team

The openings available comprise various departments that have been engaged in mentoring and inculcating the required knowledge and skills required for our existing 20 internees. With a major emphasis on software development, encompassing web and mobile application development, there are 40 live projects running in parallel.

The comprehensive development process inculcated is specifically designed not only to teach internees about the vast field of programming and other domains but to also help them find their areas of specific interest, which will aid them in choosing the professional direction they want to take.

Students Can Apply for Any Department They Fit

Cubix University's internship program includes a wide range of specialist disciplines to challenge an intern's skills and prepare them in making smarter career choices.

In addition to the educational aspect of the internship, grooming for IT roles is a critical point of focus, wherein various individuals in leadership positions play their role in mentoring the internees. CEO Salman Lakhani plays a pivotal role in this regard, offering direction and leadership.
