Karen is a pejorative term for a woman seeming to be entitled or demanding beyond the scope of what is normal. The term also refers to memes depicting blonde women who use their privilege to demand their own way. Depictions also may include demanding to "speak to the manager" or sporting a particular bob cut hairstyle. The term has been criticized for being sexist, ageist, misogynistic, or seeking to control female behavior. As of 2020, the term was increasingly being used in media and on social media as a general-purpose term for middle-aged women, especially during the COVID-19 pandemic. The term has also been applied to male behavior.
