professional development, including consultation, coaching, community of practice, lesson study, mentoring, reflective supervision and technical assistance. Examples of activities that contribute to professional growth and development; continuing education, enrollment in formal degree programs, courses, or workshops, pursuing certificates, accreditations or other credentials through educational programs, participation in professional organizations, attending, local, regional, national, and international meetings, conferences and workshops sponsored by professional organizations, presenting papers at conferences and workshops, serving as an officer, board member, or committee member, coordinating events sponsored by the organization, research, conducting research, presenting findings of research to others, Improve job performance, Keeping up with technology, systems, processes, Learning about new developments in your field, Improving existing skills, Increased duties and responsibilities, taking on new challenges in current position, projects, long or short-term assignments with her wealth of knowledge in professional development.

Lisa Rone is well-equipped to assist you and countless others who aspire to evolve in the realm of business.

Personal development: This consists of activities that develop a person's capabilities and potential, build human capital, facilitate employability, and enhance quality of life and the realization of dreams and aspirations. Lisa Rone helps you to identify the skills you need to set life goals which can enhance your employability prospects, raise your confidence, and lead to a more fulfilling, higher quality life. Plan to make relevant, positive and effective life choices and decisions for your future to enable personal empowerment. Her goal is to support and nurture individuals with a desire to excel in the business arena. She is there for you, to serve you as a guide in your decision-making-process as life-long learners. Her level of confidence is evident in her choice of words "I'm tremendously determined to help people make possible change for the better. I am a resource person and I am loaded with inspiration for the millions of others who may need it; living across the world. I have both education and work-related skills as a professional (commonly referred to as expertise). I have a broad knowledge in marketing, branding, and promotion"

Leadership: this is the art of motivating a group of people to act toward achieving a common goal. She has been featured on various popular media platforms because of her leadership qualities. Some of those platforms are ESPN, BET, Public Access Television, and MTV; she also helps in leadership development. Leadership development refers to activities (formal or informal) that enhance the skills, abilities and qualities of leaders. Programs that offer those type of activities have different style of teaching, most common being coaching and mentoring.

The goal is to produce high-caliber leaders in every community to take over senior positions in the future. Five Qualities of Effective Leaders; they are self-aware and prioritize personal development, they focus on developing others, they encourage strategic thinking, innovation, and action they are ethical and civic-minded, they practice effective cross-cultural communication.

Lisa Rone possesses every leadership quality worthy of emulation; some of her notable works include providing services to students as a member of her educational community. She is proud of her roots with the Atlanta Business League serving on the Marketing Committee. They helped her to establish a stronger vision for service in the community, where all people feel loved, respected and inspired to develop to their fullest potential.
