At the foot of Mount Pisano, the estate’s 19.6 hectares boast elegant Italian gardens and centuries-old, terraced groves of olive trees that complement its four main villas, two cottages, and caretaker’s house. Each villa is renovated with attention to luxury and homage to its lengthy history. Each villa also has a private pool and is close in proximity while still offering privacy from one another, offering an incredible and proven rental potential. Soaring vaulted and cathedral ceilings, exposed beams, and breathtaking frescos throughout make the interior of the Tuscan villa as enticing as its sprawling grounds. A grand Tuscan kitchen makes entertaining a breeze, with a formal dining room that seats 26, or enjoy a starlight dinner from the stunning alfresco dining terrace. Additional features include: a restored and fully renovated poolside fitness room; a billiards room; reading room; a private chapel; 2 tennis courts (easily converted into volleyball or football fields); and a grassy helicopter landing area—all just 20 kilometers from Pisa and one hour away from the gorgeous Le Cinque Terre National Park.

“The history behind this collection of villas is amazing,” stated David Fanucchi, seller. “Our family has poured its soul into crafting this unique luxury hospitality experience that’s simply unmatched by anything in this part of Italy. Choosing to work with Concierge Auction gives us a definite sale timeline—the kind of predictability that just isn’t guaranteed in this day and age.”
