DALLAS, TX, USA, April 15, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Hotelier Mark Wyant, owner of Seawall Hospitality LLC, has signed an agreement to purchase the historic Hotel Galvez and Spa from the heirs of Galveston Island-born oilman and developer George P. Mitchell. The deal is scheduled to close on May 12.

A native Texan, Mr. Wyant is an established hotel owner and developer in Texas, Florida, Louisiana and South Carolina. The purchase of the Hotel Galvez will mark the third property Wyant has developed in Galveston. In 1999, he built the Holiday Inn Express at 1st and Seawall and then sold it in 2005. In 2004, he developed the Holiday Inn

Sunspreet Resort, where the noted Capt. Jack's once stood. In 2014, he sold it and went on to create The Saint Hotel brand with award-winning properties in New Orleans, Key West and Charleston. He recently sold The Saint New Orleans and is finalizing construction on The Saint Hotel Charleston.

"With its unparalleled location, I want to ensure that the iconic Hotel Galvez and Spa will remain a landmark, complementing the history and beauty of Galveston. This property is a beloved destination for weddings, corporate meetings, business and leisure travelers. My plans include renovations of the hotel rooms and interiors as well as the addition of entertainment venues, which will bring a new vitality to the Hotel Galvez and Spa," said Mark Wyant, owner, Seawall Hospitality LLC.
