

Speakers Inspired Attendees to Roar During 4th Annual “Women Who Roar” Summit

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES , April 15, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ --

“Constantly keep your value and your mission front of mind,” Soledad O’Brien, award-winning broadcast journalist and executive producer, told the attendees at the sold-out 4th Annual “Women Who Roar” Summit held on April 10, 2021. “Remember why you are taking this very challenging path. Keep that front of mind...why did you decide to do this? What do you care about? What matters to you...That’s what’s going to help you get through the tough parts and that’s what’s going to help you celebrate the great parts. Know that you are on a mission, on task, and living your values.” O’Brien’s advice was the perfect ending to a day filled with motivational, inspiring, and vulnerable moments by notable speakers including Ellevest founder Sallie Krawcheck that lent their voice, opinion, and expertise on topics ranging from financial health to self-love. The goal for The Female Collaborative was to stir women to “Be Bold. Take control.” as noted by this year’s conference theme. The attendees rallied around that theme with flurries of questions and sharing of their stories or how they would take what they had learned and put it into action.

This Summit truly demonstrated the power of “The Renaissance Woman” and our non-profit will continue to find ways to help these women be bold and take control of their professional and personal lives.”
