About

Up-and-coming singer, songwriter LJGOLD is an inspirational speaker born in Oakland, California. Growing up, LJGOLD's passion was basketball and football, which brought him closer to the raw realities of life.

Life was a struggle for LJGOLD but he still managed to outwork the struggles that come with being homeless and was making his own music by the age of 12 at the Sepia Sound Productions studio. When LJGOLD began working on his first CD, his father established Genesis Sound Productions, a disk making company, to help with the production of the CD. Later on, rather than signing with a major record company, LJGOLD became the CEO of a record company he himself established – Music Forever Entertainment, which also recorded other artists. So far, LJGOLD has released 4 albums: 'Hood Bizz', 'From the Hood to Hollywood', 'A.W.N.P' and 'Pull Up'.
