

The Frederic & Jocelyne Scheer Foundation Announce the One Week Extension of An Evening with Chopin

Filmed in Three Locations Around the World, Young Pianists Showcased in Streamed Concert Available Exclusively on Valhalla Media Live Now through April 24

BOZEMAN, MONTANA, USA, April 17, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Due to overwhelming demand, the Frederic & Jocelyne Scheer Foundation announced today that it would be extending the streaming period of An Evening with Chopin, a concert dedicated to showcasing the talents of young pianists from around the world. The concert, previously only available until April 17, will now be streaming for an additional week, until April 24, exclusively on Valhalla Media Live.

Filmed in Latvia, Germany, and Italy, three rising stars participate in this Chopin-centric program hosted from Australia by Madeline Cross Parkin, the foundation's Director of Grants (Brisbane, Australia). Audiences will hear from Katrina Suroveca (Riga, Latvia), Murad Abasov (Berlin, Germany), and Martina Consonni (Como, Italy) in the 60 minute concert stream. The repertoire ranges from Chopin classics to rarely heard gems.

Valhalla Media Live and its team were tasked with spearheading the filming logistics and post-production of the multi-country offering, aiming to fulfill their mission of bringing world class artistry to viewers around the world. The stream is viewable on any device and will remain available for 72 hours after initial purchase.

Tickets are $8.95/student suggested price & $14.95/adult suggested price and available for purchase at valhallamedia.live, however a pay what you want option is enabled for this concert.
