SAMHSA offers multiple and significant grant funding opportunities throughout the year”

Brian Carr

Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) grant funding opportunities are expanding. Learn how to utilize practices for adherence to prescription drug storage, supervision and distribution within your facility while protecting your practice. Establish and maintain an operating environment that is conducive for patient care, SAMHSA funding eligibility as well as participate in the reduction of substance abuse on America's communities.

Are you responsible for narcotics in your drug treatment/recovery or mental health facility? Do you want to know more about funding eligibility? How to appropriately handle the storage, custody and security of specific FDA approved medication such as buprenorphine, methadone and more.

Key Takeaways:

1. Discuss current SAMSHA funding for behavioral health and addiction centers
2. Identify best practices to secure SAMSHA funding
3. Clinical regulatory guidelines
4. Plan(s) of Action

Featured Speakers:

Chris von Zwehl

Rx Security Expert for Scripps Safe, a leading provider in narcotics storage, transportation and dispensing.

Mr. von Zwehl will discuss current funding for behavioral health and addiction centers.

Dr. Frank Breve

President and CEO at Mid Atlantic PharmaTech Consultants, Opioid Consulting Educational Solutions and Professor, Temple University Pharmacy Department.

Dr. Breve will discuss best practices for compliance to position for eligibility under SAMHSA standards of care as well as clinical regulations.

This session is not a SAMHSA funded or sponsored event. This presentation is for information purposes only. The advice provided in this webinar consists of information to instill best practices in engaging SAMHSA grant applications. Specific questions regarding SAMHSA applications and/or related funding opportunities should be directed to qualified grant writing professionals or to a SAMHSA project officer.
