

AUDEZE PARTNERS WITH EMBODY TO DELIVER REVEAL+ VIRTUAL STUDIO PLUGIN REMASTER

The updated Reveal+ plugin will feature an enhanced remastering tool, additional virtual environments, and virtual studios powered by Award-winning artists

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, April 21, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Audeze, the leading audio technology brand and premium headphone manufacturer, today announces a significant update to their Reveal+ virtual studio plugin in partnership with personalized spatial audio leader Embodify. The new version will include an additional control parameter, two new virtual studios designed by Grammy award-winning artists, and an enhanced control room. Reveal+ is available for download now on Audeze's website.

Reveal+ 2.0 Personalized Virtual Studio for Producers & Engineers

The Reveal+ plugin uses cloud computing and powerful artificial intelligence to create a realistic studio listening environment inside Audeze headphones. The new version will provide music creators even more tools to help them perfect their mixes.

Key New Features:

- Your Personalized HRTF, now even more precise - Embodify's enhanced AI algorithms now predict an even more precise HRTF for your ears, giving you the most accurate spatial listening experience on headphones.

- Remastered sound - with an additional control parameter called HRTF Intensity, users can adjust the sound field depth and the ability to hear finer details in their mix.

- Featuring grammy-winning studios and artists - two new virtual studios designed and operated by Grammy and Platinum award-winning artists Bob Horn and Erik Reichers of Echo Bar Studios.

-Partnering with music academies - added premier Diamond Suite control room located at SAE Expression College in Emeryville, CA.

Refreshed User Interface - a cleaner look where the artists' studios are prominently featured.
