About

Up-and-coming singer and songwriter Gunna Black is an authentic force of indie Rap, rising through the ranks. Hailing from Bessemer, Alabama, the growing artist began making music and experimenting his vocals at the young age of 16. Growing up, Gunna Black was inspired and motivated by the spirit of Rap music, being a true channel to represent important life issues and expressing deep fostered sentiments.

Gunna Black continued to release a string of independently produced musical tracks, including the stunning and hit 2020 single "Pain Away". He followed up with single "Blow Like A Fuse" in 2021 and will now be captivating listeners once again with a new Hip Hop single, featuring artist Pokemon Poke. Black remains driven by the goal to establish himself as a Hip Hop artist and his label Glock Nation, which he intends to extend to a clothing brand. He wishes to continue producing rich and memorable music compositions and leave behind a better world for his family.
