HOST JENNIFER K. HILL

Awake TV NETWORK

Dr. Deepak Chopra and Dr. Bruce Lipton join Jennifer K. Hill on Awake TV Network for a Special episode

In this episode, Chopra and Lipton discuss the nature of genes, and the idea that consciousness is that which makes all experience possible. Lipton emphasizes that when you change your consciousness, you can change your biology.

Consciousness is that which makes an experience possible”

Deepak Chopra

Chopra expounds the theory of the entanglement of all things, and that although things may be differentiated, there is no intrinsic separation.

Lipton asserts that human beings are much like a TV set: Each of us is a unique broadcast that shows up on the TV that is our human form, and that while that TV may die, our broadcast or spirit goes on eternally.
