About

Velvet Razor are a group of talented musicians who got together to seize the genre of Rock in early 2002, breaking into the indie Rock scene with the debut album 'The Day the Earth Rocked'. Although garnering positive reviews and commendations, the band took a break for a couple of years, dwindling in the clubs of Surrey. However, after necessary changes and regroupings, the rising group marked their comeback in 2010 with the unveiling of their “Hex”.

Steered by the creative skill and drive of leading songwriter, vocalist and guitarist Dave Kent, the band has continued to soar and solidify their position, amazing live audiences all of England. Charged by the addition of a dynamic and talented new drummer, Velvet Razor is now looking forward to making their mark once again, melding captivating Rock compositions.
