MULLICA HILL, NJ, UNITED STATES, April 21, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mullica Hill, NJ After establishing her Boutique

Brokerage, Nancy Kowalik Real Estate Group, Nancy Kowalik, founder and owner announced her new brokerage Your Home Sold Guaranteed Realty NJ llc. This unique brokerage is founded on the concept of "Exclusivity" where the homes will not be listed on the MLS or Zillow and will be marketed solely through the premier marketing channels that has created thousands of success stories and 5 star, clients for life!

Today's real estate market treats homeowners and their homes like commodities. Some homeowners want a different approach”

Nancy Kowalik

Seeing a need in the market for owners who want to sell, but do not want their property open to the general public, this concept is a new way of doing things in the real estate market. Still cooperating with other brokers and offering a buyer broker commission split, the system still resembles the traditional way of doing business, backed with cutting edge technology, and with more privacy for the sellers.

"Today's real estate market treats homeowners and their homes like commodities. Some homeowners want a different approach and do not want their properties to be seen by anyone who has a computer or a smart phone. They want to be exclusive to the buyers in their price range. This gives the seller a sense of privacy and security that the current way of real estate, through the MLS, does not allow," Kowalik says. "We don't just put a sign on the front lawn and list it on the MLS. We treat the seller's home like it is NOT a commodity. We treat it like the specialized, magnificent dream filled gem that they created. We tell their home's story in a way that other brokerages do not. This takes more time and effort on our part, but it is worth it for the end result."
