

Divorce Options™ Workshops Come to Texas

Couples facing divorce have many questions. Collaborative Divorce Denton County is providing a Divorce Options workshop for people looking for answers.

DENTON, TX, UNITED STATES, April 21, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ --

A community service sponsored by Collaborative Divorce Denton County

For a couple that is facing divorce or separation there are many questions. Collaborative Divorce Denton County is providing a free Divorce Options™ workshop for individuals or couples looking for answers. The public education workshop is designed to help gain an understanding of how to manage the legal, financial and emotional aspects of this challenging life transition.

Collaborative Divorce Denton County

Divorce Options™ workshop is presented by a team of divorce professionals trained in this unique process, including: one or two lawyers, a financial specialist and a divorce/communication coach/child specialist. Each team member has experience guiding people successfully through a divorce without time consuming and costly litigation. Divorce Options™ will help you explore your divorce process choices and make informed decisions about which process will most likely lead to your desired outcomes.

Who Should Attend Divorce Options™

The workshops are open to all individuals and couples in Denton County and Texas who are contemplating separation or divorce whether married, domestic partners or cohabiting, regardless of gender, with or without children. You may attend individually or as a couple.

Each Divorce Options™ workshop will provide attendees with general information about divorce, including the advantages and disadvantages of different divorce options, including information on the following:

Advantages and Disadvantages of:

Self-representation (“pro-se” or “do-it-yourself”)

Mediation

Collaborative Divorce

Traditional Representation

How to talk to your children about divorce

How to protect the things that are important to you

How to preserve family relationships

How to maintain your emotional health and lessen stress

How to retain control of the divorce process

The Divorce Options™ workshop is presented by Collaborative Divorce Denton County (CDDC), CDDC is a not-for-profit member organization whose mission to educate divorcing couples and individuals about divorce and their options for managing their divorce case.
