

Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery San Francisco Announces New Post on Second Opinions for Jaw Surgery

Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery San Francisco is proud to announce new post alert about the importance of a second opinion before scheduling jaw surgery.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 26, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery San Francisco (<https://www.oral-surgery-sf.com/>), a team of best-in-class oral surgeons in the San Francisco Bay Area, is proud to announce a new post focused on the value of getting a second opinion before any major jaw surgery. Consulting with more than one specialist in the field of orthognathic and maxillofacial surgery may find unique issues and opportunities.

"Jaw surgery is a diverse and complex type of surgery. Each patient brings a different set of circumstances which require individual solutions," Dr. Alex Rabinovich, head of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery San Francisco. "I recommend Bay Area patients double-check their situation with a second specialist before moving ahead. A second opinion on jaw surgery could change the outcome for the better."

Bay Area residents can review the new post by Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery San Francisco at <https://www.oral-surgery-sf.com/2021/04/you-really-need-a-second-opinion-if-you-require-jaw-surgery-in-san-francisco/>. A surgical procedure for the jaw can entail various techniques depending on the diagnosis. A top oral surgeon in San Francisco specializing in orthognathic surgery, facial reconstruction, and cosmetic surgery can determine the best plan for success, evaluating the unique issues of each individual patient. Patients may require surgery due to malocclusions, facial trauma, TMJ disorder, soft tissue lesions, a cleft lip or palate. Interested persons are also urged to review the jaw surgery page at <https://www.oral surgery-sf.com/jaw-surgery/>. Those with specific dental implant needs can visit <https://www.sfdentalimplants.com/>, and those looking for cosmetic surgery options such as face lifts can visit <https://visage-sf.com/>.

BAY AREA LOCALS ASK A TOP-RATED ORAL SURGEON IN SAN FRANCISCO TO TAKE A SECOND LOOK

Here is the background for this release. Basic oral surgery procedures could be considered typical in the Bay Area. Local residents might not think twice about scheduling a root canal or tooth extraction with an oral surgeon referred by a dentist. If a patient suffers from a malocclusion or unequal growth of the jaws, however, the surgery will become more complex. Patients can benefit from double-checking with a top-rated oral surgeon in San Francisco. Repairing the jaw due to trauma or disease may affect other parts of the face. For these reasons, Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery San Francisco announce a new post about the value of receiving a second opinion before scheduling jaw surgery.
