NEUROFEEDBACK AT HOME

Making Neurofeedback (NF) accessible to home users, opens a new world of possibilities for people to train their brain easily, directly from their home. Neurofeedback is a very effective method for training the brain for better focus and cognitive functions. Excellent Brain's Neurofeedback Home Kit enables consumers to train their attention ability at home and is highly recommended for people who are diagnosed with ADHD.

Excellent Brain has been developing its Neurofeedback platform since 2015 and has become a leader in the direct-to-consumer brain training solutions.
