

Scrubbed Welcomes New Chief People Officer to Executive Team

Scrubbed, an outsourced bookkeeping, accounting, auditing, and corporate finance firm, announced that Angelina "Lin" Mukhi has joined as Chief People Officer.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA , USA, April 27, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Scrubbed, an outsourced bookkeeping, accounting, auditing, and corporate finance firm with operations in San Francisco, CA and the Philippines, announced that Angelina "Lin" Mukhi has joined the executive team as Chief People Officer (CPO). In this role, Mukhi will oversee initiatives for capability building, HR transformation and enablers of business growth.

"Lin's approach to culture development goes hand-in-hand with our goals here at Scrubbed," said Gani Laguisma, Scrubbed co-founder and CEO, about Mukhi's new position. "Her strengths are in thought leadership, stakeholder management, people strategy development and leveraging technology to achieve operational excellence. She will be a change catalyst at Scrubbed, designing the transition roadmap to merge technical, people and culture initiatives with a keen business focus."

Mukhi's experience in HR operations and transformation spans both global and local organizations. Her innovative strategies earned her the distinction of Fellow in People Management (FPM), awarded by the People Management Association of the Philippines (PMAP), of which she is also the 2021 President.

"Scrubbed already provides an inclusive, supportive environment that inspires employees to bring their best selves to work," said Mukhi, speaking on her new position. "I will help drive that message home with people and culture initiatives that are grounded in business goals and create a more empowering, collaborative workplace."
