

Sweets For Sweetheart Medical Center Workers

Local Medical Center Workers receive Mother's Day Gift from The Salvation Army Woman's Auxiliary.

WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA, USA, April 28, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local Medical Center Workers receive Mother's Day Gift from The Salvation Army Woman's Auxiliary.

West Palm Beach, Florida (April 27, 2021) – On May 7th, the Woman's Auxiliary of The Salvation Army of Palm Beach County will be presenting assorted boxes of See's Candies to Mr. Timothy Howard so that they can be distributed to all the female health care workers at the Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center for Mother's Day (May 9th). The gesture coincides with National Salvation Army Week that starts on Mother's Day.

"Each year around the Christmas holiday, we receive a generous donation of See's Candies from a vendor at Palm Beach Gardens Mall to use for our Spring "Hearts of Gold" Luncheon," said Maria Mamlouk, President of the Woman's Auxiliary. "Since we're not having our annual luncheon this year due to COVID, the ladies wanted to use the candies to bless others, and so chose the Medical Center." Co-Presidents of the Auxiliary, Margaret Vitale and Maria Mamlouk, will be present to hand out the candies. Each box will also enclose the following message: "The Salvation Army Woman's Auxiliary would like to thank you for your devotion to saving lives and present you with a small
