FaZe Clan, the world's most prominent and influential gaming organization is excited to release their new Bunker collection today at 12pm PT on fazeclan.com.

For this collection, FaZe Clan tapped into their own creative team to showcase the intersection of FaZe Clan's tactical style and streetwear. JYV creative directed and photographed the collection which was designed primarily by Blazzy who took inspiration from military bunkers and gaming culture as a whole. JYV paid homage to FaZe Clan's Call of Duty roots by using cold undertones with the imagery and included prominent influencers in the streetwear community to model. Joy Divizn (Phoenix), who has been closely involved in the rollout and creative direction of Playboi Carti's Whole Lotta Red album and his protege, Lil Homie Anthony, an upcoming figure in the skateboarding and streetwear spaces are featured in the lookbook.

This drop comes on the heels of FaZe Clan welcoming Arizona Cardinals quarterback and first overall NFL draft pick in 2019, Kyler "FaZe K1" Murray, as the newest official member. The collection features hoodies, t-shirts, shorts, jersey, clock, blanket and more ranging from $30-$90 . Alongside the Bunker Collection, official FaZe K1 t-shirt and hoodie ranging from $40-$90 are also available today at fazeclan.com.
