The P2P Life Logo

"The P2P Life recognizes the complexity of living our lives and fulfilling our dreams in personalized, authentic, and safe ways and as curators of life experiences. Our vision of expanding access to expert, deep and inspiring content is integrated seamlessly through these various divisions and media channels. Their ever-growing, diverse team of passionate travel and event planning professionals, along with expert collaborators across a broad professional spectrum, strives to make a difference in the world. Their goal is to curate the world's most unique experiences and reimagine them as exclusively for you, like your fingerprint- one experience, adventure, event, story, meal, and dream, at a time. This holistic approach brings more meaningful experiences to their passionate and discerning clientele in concert with their global travel partners. They know that the real "WOW! Factor" lies in the understanding, planning, and execution long before a suitcase is packed" cofounders Randi Winter and Camille Jocsak elaborate.

The parent company, Planned 2 Perfection Limited, is an award-winning International Fundraising and Event Consulting business, founded by Camille Jocsak, CTC, over 3 decades ago. They are experts in designing, developing, coordinating, and managing all types and sizes of events globally and across a wide range of organizations. Their client-focused services and ability to develop and manage strategies help strengthen the fundamental elements for every event achieving the highest levels of client success. including corporate, non-profit, lifestyle, and social celebrations.

With passion and purpose, their team has travelled extensively, to bring firsthand knowledge of what to expect. Paradise 2 Perfection is an affiliate of Travel Edge, one of the world's finest luxury travel networks. The P2P Life collaborates with top companies and partners that are diverse, inclusive, and committed to leaving a positive footprint in the world for future generations.

As businesswomen, entrepreneurs, and mentors, Camille and Randi always look ahead for ways to enhance client experiences while making a positive mark on the world. They believe we should all "let our passions be our guides".
