Arthur (Squeaky) Kirk is building his legacy in West Baltimore

Arthur (Squeaky) Kirk is a Dispatcher with the Baltimore City Fire Department and member of the Baltimore Firefighters IAFF Local 734. He is a true inspiration! In his role as a Dispatcher, he is that calming voice on the other end of the line while you are in crisis and the person responsible for guiding first responders to your location – a task that has become more and more challenging as the City of Baltimore reduces resources available to first responders and the community.

“He is truly an inspiration, his is a story of legacy, building his legacy in the City of Baltimore and making sure others do not forget the legacy of his mother Ruth M. Kirk”, Jason A. Plotkin, Chairman of the Baltimore Firefighters Community Advisory Council and the CEO of the Pinder Plotkin Legal Team.

“Ever since I met Squeaky back in 2014, I have been incredibly moved by his passion for serving his community and his relentless determination”, Governor Larry Hogan, State of Maryland. “In 2015, he began the process of rehabbing a closed community center in Baltimore City to honor his late mother Delegate Ruth M. Kirk and six years later the Ruth M. Kirk Recreation and Learning center is a beacon of hope for countless families in the City of Baltimore”, said Governor Hogan.

“Squeaky is a Dispatcher with the Baltimore City Fire Department, they are our lifeline on incidents”, Richard Langford, President of Baltimore Firefighters Local 734, Vice-Chair of the Baltimore Firefighters Community Advisory Council. “The Programs that he provides to the kids in West Baltimore is amazing”, said Langford. “The Baltimore Firefighters Community Advisory Council looks forward to helping Arthur and the residents of West Baltimore”, said Langford.
