Annually, Quick Quack Car Wash celebrates educators and staff by giving away free car washes to show appreciation.

Quick Quack will offer their Lucky Duck/Best Wash to all educators and staff who show their school badge or ID.

“I can name all of my teachers from elementary, middle school, high school, and even college,” said Courtney Hardy-Wagner, Marketing Leader of Quick Quack Car Wash. “Those assigned projects, themed learning days, and history games are something students will always remember. And though teachers don’t expect anything on Teacher Appreciation Day, this is one small way to let them know we are thinking about them and applauding all of the good work they are doing in the classroom.”

Quick Quack invites the community to celebrate their teachers and gift them with a free car wash during this one-day promotion by sharing this with their favorite teachers to stop by any Quick Quack for their free wash on May 4.
