HealthViewX - Your Technology Partner for Value Based Care

“The partnership of HealthViewX-EIHS offers a new and exciting dynamic to the healthcare landscape. A seamless delivery of integrated Medically Supervised Preventative Health Services, led by a team of culturally diverse healthcare professionals, provides a unique approach to the patient care experience. A Culturally Sensitive approach coupled with access to healthcare services fosters a high degree of patient engagement and enhances the patient’s commitment to the recovery process, resulting in stronger patient outcomes. A super-smart intuitive robust wrap-around service (HealthViewX patient data-driven Preventative Healthcare solution) offers physicians and patients the ability to overcome existing and future barriers which impede the growth and development of each individual. The partnership of HealthViewX-EIHS will revolutionize healthcare service in the 21st century.”, said Louis B. McClean, Chief Operating Officer at Embrace Integrated Health Solutions LLC.

“Our strategic partnership with EIHS is the culmination of a shared journey both organizations have taken over the last 4 years. Our partnership is intended to help touch more lives by adding a full-service provider to our platform of services. This partnership will be a critical addition in our steadfast commitment to address systemic inequities faced by minority communities in accessing technology-led superior healthcare”, said Subbiah Viswanathan, CEO & Co-Founder at HealthViewX.
