As a young man in 1989, Tahir immigrated to the United States. He married Wanda O'Quinn, and together the couple has five children. Tahir is always working to keep the Melladys musical tradition alive.

Tahir Mella, the Pilot

One of the ways that Tahir brings out his adventurous side is through flying. He is an experienced pilot, having received his private pilot's license in 2001. He is trained to fly the Cessna 150, Cessna 152, Cessna 172 Skyhawk, and the 3I Sky Arrow. Tahir's passion for flying served as inspiration for his own son, Kyle, to earn his commercial helicopter license in 2019.

Tahir Mella, the Equestrian

When not flying high in the sky, Tahir often works with horses that have their four feet planted firmly on the ground. He has had extensive experience in numerous riding styles, being trained in English dressage and steeplechases as well as in Western saddle and barrel racing. Tahir's daughter, Bryn, has followed in his equestrian footsteps and has also become an expert in equestrian sports and care.

In addition to his piloting and equestrian pursuits, Tahir loves traveling across the country with his family. They often go RVing together to new destinations across North America, reveling in the simpler life on the road. The Mellas also often take cross-country trips in their 1966 Volkswagen Microbus, which has been dubbed "Hugs" and boasts the name proudly on her license plate. Hugs was a "Best in Show" winner in 2012 and features in Melladys' music videos. With so much more to explore and experience, Tahir Mella has his sights on many new adventures. He hopes to inspire others to chase their dreams and go on their own adventures when given the opportunity.
