Featured Success Story: Top Producing Real Estate Agent Trisha Cowan in Pasadena, CA

What does winning this award mean to me:

First and foremost, it's an honor to be part of such an incredible group of inspiring real estate professionals. In order to understand my gratitude, I would have to highlight where I came from. For those of you who don't know, I worked in hygiene on a rigorous schedule where I felt there was no more room to grow. When I took the leap to work with Your Home Sold Guaranteed, with these empowering leaders, I gave up everything I knew except for one thing: HOPE. I wanted more and I wanted better for myself; thus, I took the leap of faith and buckled down with my work ethic.

My start in this industry felt slow, compared to what I was hearing in our morning meetings, endless calls and showings to no avail. I was left frustrated with no offer. “Was this the right decision? Did I leave something stable and familiar as a mistake? For an illusion?” I knew I wasn't going back to where I had been because I have seen what it can produce for me, so my only way through was forward. After seemingly countless MONTHS of showings and emails, I was finally able to submit an offer. I felt ecstatic, I was reminded of the fact that I left for the chance at a better life and that would not happen without a fight.

You build a wall brick by brick. The individual brick seems small and unassuming, but overtime, each brick laid upon one another is the sight of dedication and persistence, eventually a fortress can be achieved.

There is no doubt I have a lot to learn, but I see myself growing and learning continuously throughout this entire process from here and on forward. The desire to progress will not stop for me.

Your Home Sold Guaranteed Realty brings forward something I don't see any other coming close to. It hones you as an individual, not just an agent. The values are universal and cross applicable. As my mentors have empowered and inspired me, I seek to do the same for others. And, with authenticity and effort, genuine relationships are formed. Friendships and chosen family are made.

I hope to continue to grow with this company and make a significant impact.
