BOSTON, MA, USA, May 10, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Marcia Wagner, the Managing Director of The Wagner Law Group, widely renowned as the country's top ERISA and employee benefits law firm, has announced that attorney Christopher H. Suh has joined its Boston, MA office as a Partner. "The outstanding breadth and depth of Chris's experience will be an enormous asset to our firm's growing trusts and estates practice. We are delighted that he is joining us," says Ms. Wagner.

Marcia Wagner, founder and Managing Director of The Wagner Law Group

Christopher H. Suh has more than two decades of experience, specializing in sophisticated trusts and estate planning, transfer tax issues, estate administration, prenuptial agreements, business succession planning for individuals and closely-held businesses, charitable giving, trust reformations, asset protection, guardianships and conservatorships, as well as probate litigation. His practice focuses on designing and drafting estate plans using strategies focused on minimizing estate taxes, drafting instruments such as irrevocable life insurance trusts, grantor retained annuity trusts, qualified personal residence trusts and generation-skipping transfer trusts, and preparing and filing gift and estate tax returns. Known for taking the time to educate his clients, Mr. Suh distills complex legal and tax concepts into plain English for their benefit.
