

Free Vaccination Outreach

The Salvation Army of Palm Beach County responds to call to provide free vaccinations.

WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA, USA, May 7, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Friday, May 7th the Florida Division of Emergency Management will be providing a Mobile Vaccination Site at the Salvation Army's Family Store, located on 655 Military Trail, West Palm Beach, from 11 am to 6 pm.

Individuals 18 years of age or above are encouraged to come and receive the one-time Johnson and Johnson vaccine. Free Vaccinations will also be offered on Saturday, May 8th at the Salvation Army's Family Store in Lake Worth, located on 4051 Kirk Road, Lake Worth. While no appointment is necessary individuals are asked to bring proper identification.

According to the Palm Beach Post's COVID-19 Vaccine Tracker, less than 33% of the people of Palm Beach County are fully vaccinated. "We at The Salvation Army are grateful for this opportunity to host the Mobile Vaccination Bus at our Family Store location," said Major Leisa Hall, Area Commander for The Salvation Army of Palm Beach County. "This will be our first Mobile Vaccine Event and we are privileged to serve our community by granting greater access to the COVID-
