page – Where's Kinzinger. The Facebook page will help residents of the 16th District locate their missing Congressman, Adam Kingzinger. Kinzinger has been a frequent guest on CNN and MSNBC criticizing fellow Republicans while giving Democrats a pass since voting to impeach Donald Trump. He has called the Republican Party, “the Titanic” as he tries out to be a host on one of the progressive networks. Kingziner formed a Super PAC to raise money while neglecting the voters of the Sixteenth District. He even made it to Texas, not to check on the border crisis but to back an anti-Trump candidate in a special election who lost. Yet when it comes to being in the Sixteenth District and serving the voters who elected him, Kinzinger is AWOL. Lombardi's Facebook page will help voters keep track of Kinzinger's travels.

“Adam Kinzinger was elected to serve the residents Illinois Sixteenth District,” said Jack Lombardi. “But ever since voting to impeach Donald Trump and becoming the darling of the far left, he has been missing from the district and voters want to find him. This Facebook page will help the voters keep track of his many appearances on CNN and MSNBC and other travels, while he fails to represent the people who elected him.

“The people of the Sixteenth District deserve a representative who will work for them and stay true to their values, not to those of the far left,” concluded Lombardi. “In Congress I will never forget who sent me to represent them and will always be found in the district.”
