

Beauty and Blood

The story of a clairvoyant sleuth and her involvement in a string of murders in the beauty industry

COOKSTOWN, NEW JERSEY, USA, May 11, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Does beauty and murder mix? In Beatrice's Cayzer's "Murder for Beauty", it does.

Happy Harrow, a Kentucky-born woman jockey married to a British racehorse trainer based in Epsom, may seem like an ordinary woman—but that is far from the reality she is living. Her supernatural clairvoyance that allows her to solve murderous crimes already makes her life beyond normal, but her involvement in a string of killings in the cosmetics and perfume industry will make her life even more colorful and complicated than it already is.

In Cayzer's book, she tells the horrific tale of a serial killer who plans to take over the cosmetics and perfume industry by killing off top executives of rival companies. But they are not going to get away with it that easy because of sleuth Happy. Happy is drawn into these serial killings by a neighbor who is a Queen in the business heading the W.O.W.! Me Empire. Solving the case takes Happy to Italy, Monaco, and Turkey.
