

Crypto Asset Rating Inc awarded the trademark of 'Trusted Source for Untrusted Network'

Crypto Asset Rating Inc is pleased to announce being awarded the trademark of 'Trusted Source for Untrusted Network' from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, May 13, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Crypto Asset Rating Inc is pleased to announce that they have been awarded the trademark of 'Trusted Source for Untrusted Network' from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. The trademark signifies the company's vision of bringing transparency to the crypto market by implementing an ethical and transparent process of rating crypto assets.

Crypto Asset Rating has created a revolutionary proprietary rating system to rate crypto assets to bring transparency to the whole process. The intention behind designing a comprehensive rating framework for the crypto assets is to help people understand the long-term viability, credibility of a crypto asset, and an independent and unbiased rating.

Investors who are jumping ship to these brave new worlds of the crypto market lack the resources and expertise to assess crypto assets. There is no trusted intermediary or due diligence of offering. The crypto assets are high-risk propositions for investors as there is no trusted publicly available information. Crypto Asset Rating, Inc come into play as one of the first non-partisan authority in the crypto rating industry. The company has developed a robust rating engine where both the internal Analyst and external analyst contribute their analysis of crypto assets. The final rating committee does a rigorous review on the well-defined rating grid, starting with AAA as investment grade to D. The approved rating is published on the Crypto Asset Rating website. This evaluation process ensures that the rating is independent and unbiased.

The rating process includes in-depth research of assets. It considers all the financial, business, legal, and technical factors, which will give investors a perfect estimation of risk.

The Fintech firm helps investors identify suitable investment opportunities and helps in understanding the credibility of different products by using Crypto Asset Rating's powerful risk analysis. It considers all the major qualitative and quantitative factors and helps investors assess the risk related to that particular asset.

Crypto Asset Rating has become a trusted source for investors worldwide with a robust and proprietary rating framework.
